

End Punctuation

End punctuation is used to end a statement, question, or exclamation.

Periods

Periods are used to end a statement or indirect question.

- Tomorrow is another day.
- I asked my sister if she was coming to the reunion.

Question Marks

Use question marks following a direct question.

- Is that your shoe?
- Where is the house?

Exclamation Points

Use exclamation points following a sentence with strong emotions or surprise.

- Run!
- Fire!
- There's a wasp!